	02.03.2005 Smt. Renu Kochar, counsel for the petitioners. Shri Bhaskar Pyashi, Panel Lawyer for the State/respondents on advance copy. Heard. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have been deprived of two advance increments. She further submits that for the present, the petition may be disposed of by giving an opportunity of filing a detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents and the competent authority may be directed to decide the same within stipulated period. This limited prayer of learned counsel for the petitioner is not opposed by learned counsel for the State. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served, if a direction is given to the petitioners to make a detailed representation raising their grievances before the competent authority
